

Job Openings

FT Laboratory Technical Supervisor/Consultant

Educational & Experience Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in chemical, physical, or biological or medical technology from an accredited institution and at least 2 years of laboratory training or experience in the designated specialty area of service.
- Requires knowledge of federal and regulatory agency standards.
- Physical abilities include ability to lift and push/pull a minimum of 50 lbs. On an occasional basis constant repetitious movement, bending, stooping, walking, and standing for long periods of time.

Additional Requirements

- Must be able to perform serological, bacteriological, biochemical, hematological and microbiological laboratory examinations and tests for the use in treatment and diagnosis of disease.
- Must perform and review quality controls in testing, decides if results are within acceptable ranges, researches problems and corrects such.
- Assists in the establishment of the QC and QA programs while meeting with the Medical Director of the Laboratory to review these programs to address issues or problems.
- Identifies training needs and assures that each individual performing tests receives regular in-service training.
- Displays professionalism while completing multiple urgent tasks in a timely manner

We offer great salaries, benefits and 401K plans

Email resumes to colleen.rogers@ahmgt.com or fax to 318-319-0156